

AVALANCHE RESOURCES TEAMS WITH MOTAVO VENTURE GROUP

HOUSTON, TX – December 16, 2005 – Avalanche Resources, Ltd. today announced that it has established a working relationship with Motavo Venture Group, of Denver.

Motavo Venture Group will assist Avalanche Resources in locating and evaluating investment opportunities to enhance Avalanche Resources' portfolio and increase deal flow. Avalanche Resources will utilize Motavo Venture Group as its primary resource for professional services to its portfolio companies, including corporate development, product development and advisory services.

“We continue to search for strong investment opportunities,” stated Kevin Maddox, CEO of Avalanche Resources. “Motavo has worked with us in the past and they know what we look for in a portfolio company. Our relationship with Motavo will provide enhanced deal flow for us and also provide more resources and expertise to our portfolio companies.”

Motavo Venture Group provides professional services to emerging organizations to help them optimize their competitive advantage. “At Motavo, we work with a number of emerging and growth organizations, providing corporate development, product development and advisory services,” stated Peter Kopp, founder of Motavo Venture Group. “Our exposure to these companies allows us to evaluate their needs against Avalanche Resource's investment criteria to make a personal introduction if there is a match. We provide the very important operational expertise that firms like Avalanche Resources often desire for their portfolio companies.”

Avalanche Resources welcomes prospective organizations to review the company's investment criteria on their website at www.avalancheresources.com.
